Friday 5 – 1	6 p.m.	“AMATE MAGIC” AT NAVY PIER Amate House will hold its annual fundraiser “Amate Magic”, a premier gala including silent, live and super silent auctions, cocktails, dinner, awards and dancing. The evening is hosted in Navy Pier’s Lakeview Terrace and Grand Ballroom. One of the evening’s highlights is the candlelight procession of the Amate House Volunteers, 40+ young adults on the verge of completing a year of service to under-resourced agencies, parishes and schools throughout some of the most neglected neighborhoods of Chicago. This year, Amate House celebrates its 25th year of service to Chicago.	Amate House 773-376-2445
Saturday 5 – 2	8 p.m.	10TH ANNUAL STANLEY C. GOLDER INTERFAITH LECTURE Francis Cardinal George, OMI, Archbishop of Chicago, will be part of a panel discussion “How Our Traditions Deal with Diversity” at Temple Jeremiah, 937 Happ Road in Northfield. Pulitzer Prize winning columnist Clarence Page, will deliver the keynote address and moderate the discussion on interpersonal relationships and the role of race in religious life. Other panelists include: Imam Abdul Malik Mujahid, chair of Sound Vision Foundation, Dr. Alice Hunt, president of the Chicago Theological Seminary, and Rabbi Dr. David Sandmel, Crown Ryan Professor of Jewish Studies at Catholic Theological Union. The Golder Interfaith Lecture Series promotes understanding among every faith and embraces the unifying spirituality of all religions.
